"His Banner Over Us Is Love"

Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship

JULY 11, 2014
JERRY MILLER

Jerry was born and raised in the land of Goshen, Indiana. At 4 years of age, God called his name twice. At 17 years old, the Palm Sunday tornados destroyed his home. Two years later, at the age of 19, he fell in love with and married Connie Sue. After 15 years of marriage, the couple became foster parents.

In 1989, Jerry smuggled Bibles behind the Iron Curtain and made three return trips in later years.

Due to having congestive heart failure, Jerry and Connie Sue moved to Florida when he was 52 years of age. Jerry received a miraculous healing of this condition when Gordon Robertson visited Christian Retreat.

Jerry was part of the first ever "Native America Holy Spirit Gathering" with Dr. Gerald Derstine at Christian Retreat's Strawberry Lake facility in Minnesota. This had significant meaning to him since his Hochstetler ancestors were attacked and killed by the Indians.

After 42 years of marriage, Connie Sue got to go to heaven and he joined GriefShare where he met Phyllis, his present wife of almost 4 years.

Jerry has met 8 people who have been to heaven and back and Heaven is his favorite subject to talk about. Come hear him share what God has done and continues to do in his life.
