

Phil Dotson

Phil was raised in a Christian home with Godly Christian parents. His walk with The Lord strayed when he had completed High School and left home. As many of us did as blooming youth's, he fell into bad habits. As Phil explains it here,

“My life has not always been lived the way it should have been, even though I was raised a Christian, I fell away after High School and was involved in alcohol abuse for about 4 years. Then Christ said “Follow me I haven't deserted you.” I gave up the drinking, singing country music in the bars and said, “Yes Lord, I will follow you.””

After I returned from Vietnam I started singing gospel music in 1971 while stationed at Fort Knox, Kentucky. I am a called and committed follower of Jesus Christ and active at Killarney Baptist Church as a member of the praise team, choir, and soloist. I haven't looked back since that moment I received the invitation to follow Christ. I use every opportunity I get to spread the gospel of everlasting salvation through a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. Circumstances, scenarios and situations impact our life for a reason. While serving in the military in Vietnam I was changed in a positive way. It was there I found solace in God's care.

I formed the group “UNSHACKLED” Gospel Music Inc. to use my gift to share the Lord's work in 1971. I sought and received permission to use “He Touched Me”© (Bill Gaither, Lyricist) as my theme song. Although Lois and I don't travel anymore for singing engagements, I still accept occasional bookings when it is requested.

This is just a small part of my life over the last 40 the Lord is my Shepherd and

I will always follow him.
