

Just As You Are Ministries JAYA

Al and Sue Hoover met in 1970 and married the first time in 1972. A tumultuous lifestyle led to an eventual divorce in 1977. This couple was divorced for fifteen years before meeting again. God allowed their paths to cross again and they were remarried in 1992. Their marriage is still going strong today as they work side by side in their ministry work(s) helping people incarcerated and struggling with addictions to get on a better life path and become positive part of society and not a burden to society.

This couple has volunteered with the Florida Department of Corrections since 2004 to assist individuals to get their life back on track. It takes a lot of effort and work to train and make disciples for Jesus, but Al and Sue Hoover have stepped up to the plate and delivered as God has asked them to; equipped them to and continues to bless them through their work. They created and started Just as You Are Ministries in 2008 and JAYA House in 2010.

Offering Encouragement to those incarcerated and/or struggling with addiction

On a personal note I would like to add that I first met this couple when my niece Kim Torrey was in “The Steps” drug rehab center in Apopka, Florida. Kim completed the program with flying colors and was helped in getting permanent employment upon her release by Al and Sue Hoover. They were a very positive addition to the addiction relief Kim had already gone through. Thank you Al and Sue for what you did for our Kim.

Sadly Kim was hit and killed by an 18 year old man in a hurry to get home one evening as she was walking along Plymouth Sorrento Road attempting to make it back to a gas station for fuel. At her memorial services we were able to share with the other women in this program that the program does work and Kim was proof of how you can overcome your addictions. Kimberly Ann Torrey November 4, 1975 - September 3, 2014
