

Biography for Terry Clark

Terry Clark was born in Wichita, Kansas July 1957. Terry's family lived coast to coast while he was growing up and ended up in southeast Michigan where he attended high school. After graduating from high school in 1975, Terry entered Michigan State University to study mechanical engineering. In the middle of his sophomore year he began working as a cooperative education student with General Electric on the eastside of Cleveland, Ohio. He alternated work and school every other quarter. Terry was married in June 1979 and graduated from MSU in June of 1980 with a BSME degree. Upon graduation, he moved to Waterloo, Iowa to work for John Deere as a manufacturing engineer. Terry was in the first ever salaried employee layoff in Deere & Co.'s history February 1983 which led him to a job at Northern Telecom in the Research Triangle Park, North Carolina. He worked for Northern Telecom in various functional roles until they filed bankruptcy in January 2009 and his business unit was bought by Genband, Inc. June 2010. Terry is currently employed with Genband in the same RTP location he started at in 1983.

Terry was saved by accepting Jesus Christ as his Savior on April 9, 2001 when he was 43 years old. Jesus has changed his life dramatically by removing alcoholism from him and as well as saving his second marriage. God is still transforming his life.

Terry has one son, Kevin who was born in 1986 and now lives in Chicago, Illinois. Terry was divorced in July 1994 and was remarried in December 1996 to Lisa, his wife of 18 years. He has 2 stepchildren, Megan who is 29 years old, married and living in Creedmoor, North Carolina and Michael who is 28 years old, married and living in Raleigh, North Carolina. Terry and Lisa have two granddaughters who are about to turn 3 and 2. Terry's favorite leisure activity is surf fishing the waters of North and South Carolina. He also builds plastic scale models occasionally, likes to read, serve in his church and has taken 2 short term mission trips to Central America.