Our Next FGBMFI Dinner Meeting August 12th
At Der Dutchman Restaurant
With Our Special Guest Speaker
Benito Solari

Benito Solari was born in Ecuador in 1933 to a well respected Italian Businessman. His father died when Benito was only 10 years old and he went to work to support his mother. At age 15, his Godfather took him to Columbia to work as a salesman in a store he owned. At age 17, he was introduced to Lolita and they were soon married and have been married now for 65 years. They have 5 children, with one serving as a youth pastor.

A Missionary brought Benito to NY State leaving Lolita and the children in Columbia to sell the house and follow later. There Benito met a Jewish man who helped him get a job as a high school janitor allowing him to earn enough money to send home and bring his family to the U.S.

Today Benito serves missions in Honduras, Venezuela and Guatemala teaching how to dig and operate wells for drinking water. Please especially invite your Spanish friends and neighbors to hear this amazing testimony. You will be blessed and encouraged!

When you first meet Benito it is very obvious of his love for Christ and his love for others.

This Scripture really exemplifies Benito and the way he lives his life.

'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind,' and 'your neighbor as yourself.'” Luke 10:27
