

Ms. Nancy Wilson

I have had the distinct pleasure of knowing Nancy Wilson since 1999 when we both worked at Headquarters/Campus Crusade for Christ (now CRU). When Nancy walked into the room as the guest speaker at our weekly devotional for The JESUS Film Project I thought, "WOW! Barbie in real life!" That may sound funny, but even one of her books depicts "Barbie" on the cover.

Asked once to describe Nancy in one word I was stumped. "Vivacious; On Fire for The Lord; beautiful; loving; caring; compassionate; dedicated; a true friend; world traveler; accomplished writer; outstanding speaker; ambassador;' and the list could go on. Nancy is all of these things. I would have to say that my singular word for this precious Sister in Christ would have to be "AWESOME".

With all that, one might think she has no issues in life. She is on top of her game at all times. She is anointed by The Lord and therefore suffers not nor lacks for anything. Such is not the truth for just like you and I, Nancy has struggled throughout her life with issues, doubts, fears and such, but she always knew she could turn to our Heavenly Father for the answers.

Please come to hear how this extraordinary person has continued to serve God all around the world and is now working with Christians, Jews, Muslims and other religious groups to share the story of Jesus Christ. I honestly believe you will come away from this dinner meeting blessed beyond words. Check her out at the website www.nancywilson.org where you can even purchase her books.

Urgent Prayer Request

Our Guest Speaker for the January 2nd. Dinner Meeting will be traveling back into country on the date she is scheduled to speak. Sister Nancy Wilson has asked that we all pray for her safe travel and safe arrival at this dinner meeting. Also pray that God will give her rest and peace without the anxiety of the tight schedule she has been under.

I truly believe you will feel the anointing over this precious Sister in Christ. We look forward to your attendance and until then remain Respectfully yours,

Pastor Tom
