January Speaker

Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International- Chapter 305
"His Banner Over Us Is Love"

Tim Solomon
January 12, 2018
Duffs Buffet, Bradenton

Tim Solomon was born in Ashland, Ohio while his father was attending Ashland theological seminary. When Tim was two years old, his parents moved to Argentina where they served as missionaries until 1972. Tim's first language was Spanish, although he learned English at home, since his parents were committed to their children (Tim being the oldest of four) being completely bilingual.

When Tim was 17 years old, his parents moved to Medellin, Colombia to begin a new church planting work there. Tim returned to the United States (to Sarasota) in his senior year of high school, and graduated from Sarasota High, along with his childhood sweetheart, Janet (Hamel) Solomon, in 1975. Tim and Jan married in April of 1977.

He then attended what was then Manatee Junior College in Bradenton, majoring in business administration, with the desire to become a Christian businessman. While studying at MJC, he worked as an announcer and producer at WKZM-FM Christian radio in Sarasota.

Further studies were done through Southeastern Bible College (Birmingham, Alabama), and Bethel College (Mishawaka, Indiana). He and his wife Jan, and their two young children, served as missionaries in Bogotá, Colombia from 1988-1991.

Upon returning to United States and working for Bethel Publishing, Tim received his MA in theology from Ashland Theological Seminary in 1999. Immediately after graduating, he and Jan were asked to work in the president's office at the world headquarters of Campus Crusade for Christ in Orlando, Florida. They continued in that position until Tim felt the call to become the pastor of the Sarasota Iglesia de los Hermanos, where he served for over 10 years.
